

Nearby Nature Summer PreSchool Daycamps Instructor

Location: Alton Baker Park

Qualifications:

- Experience teaching in an outdoor setting
- Experience working as a lead instructor of children ages 3-5
- Experience designing and implementing curriculum
- Knowledge of local natural history
- Available weekdays: mid-June through August (exact dates vary)
- Current CPR/First-Aid Certification
- Enthusiasm, sense of humor, flexibility, excellent communication skills
- Bachelor's degree preferred
- Ability to commit to teaching six or more weeks of camp
- Preference will be given to candidates who are interested in returning in summer 2019

Responsibilities:

- Attend trainings, June 9 & 10 from 10am-2 pm (& one staff orientation TBD)
- Obtain or update CPR and First Aid certification
- Create daily plans based on existing curriculum with the input of education coordinator
- Lead daily activities with an emphasis on exploration, discovery, fun, and safety
- Supervise & mentor both a youth and an adult volunteer during each camp
- Be a positive and inspiring role model for youth

Salary:

- Starting at $315 per week for ½ day programs

Location: Alton Baker Park

To Apply: Please submit a cover letter to Nearby Nature, three references, and a resume as PDFs to programs@nearbynature.org. No phone calls please. Position open until filled, (goal to fill by March).

Questions? See www.nearbynature.org or email programs@nearbynature.org.