

Substitute Teacher at Network Charter School (10-13-21)

Network Charter School (NCS) is hiring middle/high school substitute teachers for the 2021-2022 school year. These positions are part time and hours will vary. Teachers at NCS are relationship builders, content enthusiasts, and innovative thinkers. They utilize the school's unique instructional framework to develop and deliver personalized and proficiency-based instruction designed to meet the unique strengths, needs, and interests of students who have struggled in traditional schools. Small class sizes and flexibility in course design offer our teachers great opportunities to think critically and creatively about education.

Location: Network Charter School in Eugene (2550 Portland Street) plus other offsite classroom locations (Nearby Nature's Yurt in Alton Baker Park, MECCA in downtown Eugene, and Heartwise at 18th and Willamette)

Qualifications:

- Current State Licensure for middle/high school or current TSPC Charter School Teacher registered (or willingness to get TSPC registered)
- Experience working in an alternative classroom environment preferred, but not required
- Experience using restorative and trauma-informed teaching practices preferred, but not required
- Comfortable working in settings with multi-level, multi-aged students
- Organized, independent, self-motivated, efficient work style
- Excellent communication skills, team member ethic, and a sense of humor
- Bilingual in Spanish/English preferred, but not required

Responsibilities:

- Supervise students in a variety of classroom environments, including occasionally outdoors.
- Teach a variety of topics, including Literature, Math, Health, History, P.E., and/or others as needed. Lesson plans provided. Please note in application materials your subject strengths/preferences.

Benefits:

- Hourly wage of $27

To Apply: Please email erik@networkcharterschool.net the following documents (as PDFs if possible): Cover letter, resume, three references, and information regarding your available times.
