Kids Explore!

Winter Survival Match Up

Many plants and animals have special adaptations or survival strategies that help them make it through winter. Draw a line from each animal or plant on the right to one of its winter survival strategies on the left.

A. Drops its leaves

B. Sugar in its sap acts as antifreeze

C. Puts on more fur

D. Crawls under tree bark

E. Sleeps in a den

F. Stashes food

G. Slows down, seeks deep water

H. Moves to lower ground

I. Dormant in mud

J. Hibernates upside down

1. Bear
2. Bat
3. Deer
4. Grey Squirrel
5. Spider
6. Evergreen Tree
7. Frog
8. Deciduous Tree
9. Coyote
10. Trout

Nearby Nature, PO Box 3678, Eugene, OR 97403, nearbynature.org 1-3-21

-- Originally from Nearby Nature News, Winter 2006